

Wartburg Soccer Academy Technical Development Program (Ages 6 – 8 & 8 – 10)

Take The Next Step

A 4-week developmental training program running from June 7 – June 28, the Technical Development Program (TDP) is designed for aspiring players who desire more than recreational league play. For players considering the transition from recreational to competitive soccer, the TDP is the ideal stepping stone.

High Level Soccer Development in Waverly

All sessions will utilize the outstanding facilities of the Wartburg College Soccer Complex. The fields are located at 1316 5th Ave NW, Waverly, IA.

Tailored, Age-Appropriate Training

TDP technical training will be developed by Wartburg College's staff of professional coaches:

Mike Madigan	Head Men's Coach (USSF A License & National Youth License)
Tiffany Pins	Head Women's Coach (NSCAA Advanced National Diploma)
Jon Boss	Assistant Women's Coach

Training sessions will enhance each player's skill and confidence through an age specific curriculum. The curriculum will include technical repetition, fun skill-based games, small-sided games, and scrimmage opportunities. All targeted at maximizing the players' development and enjoyment!

Affordable Professional Training

The $55 participation fee covers professional training, a Wartburg Soccer Academy t-shirt, and four weeks of soccer fun and development. A $5 late registration fee will be added to all registrations received after June 1.

Where do I sign-up?

Space is limited, and we expect high demand....sign-up quickly! The fastest way to register is via Online Registration at either www.wartburgsoccer.com or www.wknightsoccer.com. We will also accept in-person registrations at the Wartburg Soccer offices in the Wartburg Waverly Sports & Wellness Center.
