 - Stop what you're doing
 - Take 3 deep breaths
 - Skip the question you're on and come back to it later, if necessary.

During Testing (cont):

- Some/many students will also have line reader, answer masking, color contrasting and text-to-speech
 - You will be provided with headphones if text-to-speech is available to you
 - PLEASE use these features if they are helpful to you!!!
- You may use scratch paper. Please put your name on all scratch paper as it will be picked up and handed in after testing.
- The calculator for the math test is built into the testing program.
- Remember the testing tools (bookmark, answer eliminator, etc) available to you during testing.

You are READY!

- Remember, you are prepared and ready for these tests!
- You spent time last week learning about the test format, test tools and doing numerous practice tests.
- You've also been preparing for these tests all year long in your classes. Try your best and don't give up!
- Bookmark and move on from a question if you're not sure. Come back to the unanswered questions before you submit.
- Why we test? We use the ISASP test results as one data point for class placements (Enhancement, Honors, AP) and to assess your learning from year-to-year.

Questions?

Make sure to ask your teachers any questions you have about ISASP testing, procedures and/or the adjusted schedule!
